

Time with God: Psalm 71

The Realities of Life

Most days, it seems like we live in two different worlds: (1) Monday through Saturday—our life filled with mundane routines, moments of pleasure, mindless lounging, and meaningless interactions and (2) Sunday—worshipping God with his people—singing, praying and receiving and responding to God’s word.

In the day in, day out frenzy of life—work, meals, chores, commute, Netflix, video games, workouts, and other activities—the reality of God’s assuring presence, his hope-filled promises, and his life-giving power is easily overshadowed. We can go an entire day, perhaps a few days, or even a week, and not even think about God. In fact, when we sit still and silent long enough, we may realize that we live lonely, uncertain, and powerless lives. God seems to be hidden in the countless pages of the Bible.

If we slow down to think about God, most of us will confess that we struggle with a “head—heart” disconnect. How many times have you heard yourself, or someone else, say, “I believe God loves me in my head but I don’t experience his love in my heart.” More times than not, our experience of God doesn’t match with what we know about God. The reality of this disconnect, and mismatch, associated with our relationship with God can leave us fearful that we are not good enough as a Christian, apathetic after repeated attempts to feel something from God end in disappointment, or hardened after giving up on God, who we think has given up on us.

You Are Created to Know and Experience God. Given the realities just discussed, the Christian life seems confusing, so hard to figure out. The good news of the gospel is that Jesus Christ died for our sins so that we would be reconciled with God. However, the best news of the gospel is that God saved us so that we could know him, to enjoy life with him, and to experience his love. God has invited us on a journey where he is making us more and more beautiful in Christ with each glance of his glory, with each taste of his goodness, with each response of faith, with every moment of trust and obedience.

Believe it or not, God is pursuing you, specifically your heart. He wants to win your affections. He created you to adore him and to be overwhelmed with his love. He delights when you seek him for refuge when you are afraid. In your stillness, he wants you to know he is God.

What reality is pressing down on you? Honestly describe how are you experiencing your relationship with God.

Experiencing God through His Word God's time-tested way of deepening your relational experience with him is through receiving, praying and living out his word by the power of his Spirit. God's word gives us new life and is implanted in our hearts (Jas. 1:18, 21). God invites you to hunger and thirst for his righteousness (Jesus Christ) AND promises to satisfy you (Matt. 5:6). Only God's Spirit can calm your heart, lift your eyes to Christ and restore our soul.

Every Christian needs to learn how to draw near to God and experience his love through his living word (Heb. 4:12). You will have an opportunity to experience God as you walk through Psalm 71 in various ways.

Receiving God's Word—Psalm 71

In you, O LORD, do I take refuge;
let me never be put to shame!
<sup>2</sup>In your righteousness deliver me and rescue me;
incline your ear to me, and save me!
<sup>3</sup>Be to me a rock of refuge,
to which I may continually come;
you have given the command to save me,
for you are my rock and my fortress.
<sup>4</sup>Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked,
from the grasp of the unjust and cruel man.
<sup>5</sup>For you, O Lord, are my hope,
my trust, O LORD, from my youth.
<sup>6</sup>Upon you I have leaned from before my birth;
you are he who took me from my mother's womb.
My praise is continually of you.

<sup>7</sup> I have been as a portent to many,
but you are my strong refuge.

<sup>8</sup> My mouth is filled with your praise,
and with your glory all the day.

<sup>9</sup> Do not cast me off in the time of old age;
forsake me not when my strength is spent.

<sup>10</sup> For my enemies speak concerning me;
those who watch for my life consult together

<sup>11</sup> and say, "God has forsaken him;
pursue and seize him,
for there is none to deliver him."

<sup>12</sup> O God, be not far from me;
O my God, make haste to help me!

<sup>13</sup> May my accusers be put to shame and consumed;
with scorn and disgrace may they be covered who seek my hurt.

<sup>14</sup> But I will hope continually and will praise you yet more and more.

<sup>15</sup> My mouth will tell of your righteous acts,
of your deeds of salvation all the day,
for their number is past my knowledge.

<sup>16</sup> With the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD I will come;
I will remind them of your righteousness, yours alone.

<sup>17</sup> O God, from my youth you have taught me,
and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds.

<sup>18</sup> So even to old age and gray hairs,
O God, do not forsake me,
until I proclaim your might to another generation,
your power to all those to come.

<sup>19</sup> Your righteousness, O God,
reaches the high heavens.
You who have done great things,
O God, who is like you?

<sup>20</sup> You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive me again;
from the depths of the earth
you will bring me up again.

<sup>21</sup> You will increase my greatness
and comfort me again.

<sup>22</sup> I will also praise you with the harp
for your faithfulness, O my God;
I will sing praises to you with the lyre,
O Holy One of Israel.

<sup>23</sup> My lips will shout for joy,
when I sing praises to you;
my soul also, which you have redeemed.

<sup>24</sup> And my tongue will talk of your righteous help all the day long,
for they have been put to shame and disappointed who sought to do me hurt.

What did you experience in your heart and mind as you received God's word?

Praying God's Word—Psalm 71

Prayer flows out of your relationship with God. Prayer not only involves crying out to God from your heart, but more importantly, involves answering God,<sup>1</sup> as you hear his heart through his word. Praying God's word guides what you pray, shapes how you pray and gives voice to your prayers. You can be confident when you pray God's word since his word reveals his purposes and desires.

How did God care for you as you prayed through Psalm 71?

How did praying through Ps. 71 differ from your typical prayers?

Jesus Christ and his Spirit are praying for you, as God's people, without interruption. Read Rom. 8:26- 27; 8:34 (cf. Heb. 7:25; Isa. 53:12; Jn. 17). The Father knows your heart and knows your needs. Given that God's word reveals God's will, it makes sense that Jesus and his Spirit pray God's word for you, to include Psalm 71.

How may the Son and Spirit be praying the Father's will for you as expressed in Psalm 71?

(Write out the Son's and Spirit's prayer on your behalf to the Father. Include your name in the prayer.)

Living Out God's Word—Psalm 71

Receiving and praying God's word draws you into God's presence and shapes your understanding and inclinations, enabling you to relate and respond to God rightly. In other words, receiving and praying God's word are always connected with living God's word. God invites you to be hearers and doers of his word in a reciprocal and parallel manner.

You can't fully understand God's word without living it out and you can't fully live out God's word without receiving and praying his word.

God gave us at least three different word pictures to help us to understand the importance of living out God's word. First, Jesus uses the parable of two foundations, where he compares the wise and foolish builder (Matt. 7:24-27). The main difference being the wise builder hears and does the word, which enable him to withstand the storms of life. Jesus adds that those who hear the word and obey it are blessed (Luke 11:28). Second, Jesus uses the image of the vine and the branch. Not only can we not doing anything apart from Christ, but we abide in his love when we obey his commands, which also results in experiencing his joy (Jn. 15:5; 9-11). Third, we are given the picture of a mirror. Those who merely hear the word is like one who looks in the mirror then forgets what he looks like in their disobedience—forgetting who they are in Christ, how God calls them to live, and who God is and what he has done. But the one who looks at God's word and does it, which helps in not forgetting what they heard, is blessed and finds freedom as they live with God and live for God (Jas. 1:21-25).

Given what you noted about what reality is pressing down on you, or how you are struggling in your relationship with God, consider how God is calling you to trust and obey him so that you can live his word, which enables you to experience his blessing and find freedom found in Christ.

How Can I Live Out Psalm 71?

List 1 or 2 practical ways God is calling you to live out the truths found in Psalm 71.